

Python Object Oriented Programming (Part-1)

(classes, objects, methods, self parameter)

1. Is python an Object Oriented Programming Language?
2. What is OOP, and why is it important in Python?
3. What are the key principles of OOPs?
4. What is a class in Python?
5. What is an object in Python?
6. How do you create an instance of a class in Python
7. What is a method in OOPs?
8. What is the purpose of the self parameter in methods?
9. How to call the methods in python class?
10. What is the differences between a function and method in python?